

Spring/Summer 2020

Design-Led Gifts.

Buy me. Keep me. Pass me on.

Our thoughtful gifts are designed to be treasured and produced to be long lasting.

We are acutely aware that our product, and packaging, needs to continue to be aspirational and design-led, whilst having a conscious respect for our environment.

Our eco promise is to change our disposable packaging, across the entire Wild + Wolf portfolio, with integrity, honesty and without greenwashing.

These are changes we are making with immediate effect.

We have a new, dedicated team assessing all product to remove plastic from our disposable packaging and in transit as quickly as we can. Where we are finding it harder to replace plastic, we will ensure it is recyclable where possible whilst working to remove it entirely.

We love our planet and will continue to do our best to find solutions to improve our environmental impact.

Welcome to our brightest range yet.

A new decade brings a new identity for Wild+Wolf, and with that a new way to do things. With a focus on our core values of developing thoughtful, design-led gifts, we are introducing two new brands:

Wild & Woofy is our first pet gifting range with a unique point of view, bringing a voice to our furry friends.

W+W is a modern, gender-neutral, outdoors and everyday line of kits, multi-tools and drinkware.

Our beloved brands also see a lot of newness: Gentlemen's Hardware tackles tech for the first time, with a stylish collection of accessories designed with the commuter and city dweller in mind.

Yes Studio sees a radical expansion into novelty gifts with that Friday feeling, as well as a refreshed look for bestselling core lines.

Ridley's delivers yet more fun with a hilarious new drawing themed party game and a unique llama themed card game.

Petit Collage goes back to its first love: Babies, with a curated baby gift collection to delight little ones and their parents.

In V&A, we're introducing an elegant new line of beauty accessories and cosmetics featuring prints inspired by the Arts & Crafts movement.

We hope you enjoy this collection as much as we enjoyed making it!
